Aubrey Capital Management Global Emerging Markets Opportunities Fund now available on Standard Life Wrap

Aubrey Capital Management today announce their Global Emerging Markets Opportunities Fund ("AGEM") is now available on the award-winning Standard Life Wrap Platform.

Andrew Dalrymple, Aubrey Founder and Manager of the Fund, commented;

"We are seeing increasing demand for the fund via intermediaries and are delighted to be working with Standard Life to boost AGEM's availability".

The Aubrey Global Emerging Markets Opportunities Fund aims to capture the long-term growth opportunities which present themselves as the vast populations of Asia, Africa and Latin America strive to improve their lives and consume the products and services which we in the developed world take for granted.

David Tiller, Head of UK Propositions said:

"We are delighted to be working with Aubrey Capital Management and welcome them to the platform. We are always looking to extend the range of funds available to advisers and the Global Emerging Markets Opportunities Fund is a welcome addition in an area that is seeing increased interest from investors."

Aubrey believes the long-term potential in these high-growth markets has not diminished, and indeed will play out over many years to come.

"We are finding more ideas than we have scope to include in the portfolio and are unreservedly bullish about the prospects for the Fund... the reality is that economic growth in most areas exceeds the developed world by a large margin. Wealth accumulation is powerful, and consequently private consumption continues to expand," said Andrew Dalrymple.
